Notice to IELTS Candidates

Disqualification warning

If you are caught infringing any of the candidate rules and regulations your test result will be disqualified and notification sent to any receiving institution or professional body.

Rules and Regulations

You must...

- Provide proof of your identity (e.g. passport or national identity card) at registration and every examination session. Second country nationals must produce a passport. This ID must contain a number, a signature, a date of birth and a photograph.
- Provide two recent identical passport-sized photographs on registration.
- Only have on your desk your identification, a pen/pencil and an eraser.
- Ensure mobile phones, pagers and any other electronic devices are switched off and placed with personal belongings outside the test room. Any candidate who does not switch off their phone/pager, or who retains one in their possession, will be disqualified.
- Notify the test invigilator immediately if test day conditions in any way impede your performance.

You must not...

- Impersonate another person or have another person impersonate you.
- Attempt to cheat, copy the work of another candidate or disrupt the test.
- Use, or attempt to use, a dictionary, pager, spell-checker, electronic recorder or mobile phone for the duration of the test. Any candidate doing so will be disqualified.
- Talk to or disturb other candidates once the examination has started.
- Smoke, eat or drink in the examination room.
- Reproduce any part of the test in any format/medium. Any candidate doing so will have their test results disqualified and be liable to prosecution.
- Remove any materials used during the examination. This includes, but is not limited to, examination papers, speaking task cards, answer papers and working paper.

Advice and information

Make sure you attend on time

- Know the date, time and place of your examination and arrive before the scheduled starting time.
- If you arrive late for any of the papers, report to the supervisor or invigilator. You may not be allowed to take the examination.

Provide what you need

- Take into the examination room only the pens, pencils and erasers which you need for the examination.
- Correction fluid and highlighters must not be used.
- Leave anything which you do not need, or which is not allowed, outside the examination room.
- You may not lend anything to, or borrow anything from, another candidate during the examination.
- Do not bring valuables as the test centre cannot be responsible for these.

Examination instructions

- Listen to the supervisor and do what you are asked to do.
- Tell the supervisor or invigilator at once
 - if you think you have not been given the right question paper.
 - if the question paper is incomplete or illegible.

- Read carefully and follow the instructions printed on the question paper and on the answer sheet.
- Fill in the details required on the front of your question paper and on your answer sheet before the start of the examination.

Advice and assistance during the examination

- If you are in doubt about what you should do, raise your hand to attract attention. An invigilator will come to your assistance.
- You may not ask for, and will not be given, any explanation of the questions.
- If on the day of the examination you feel that your work may be affected by ill health or any other reason, you must inform the invigilator at the time.

Leaving the examination room

- You may not leave the examination room without the permission of the supervisor or invigilator.
- You can not leave your seat until all papers have been collected and you have been told you can leave.
- When you leave the examination room you must leave behind any paper used for rough work clearly crossed through and any other materials provided for the examination.
- Do not make any noise near the examination room.

Results

- Results are issued by test centres, usually 13 days after the test.
- Results may be delayed or withheld where any of the Rules and Regulations have been breached.

- In exceptional circumstances, results may be delayed and you may be required to re-take one or more modules where the pattern of module results is highly unusual.
- Please note that institutions and organisations you have listed under question 24 may access your results before you have received them by mail.

Codes to enter for questions 11–14

Refer to the lists below for the codes to enter for your country or region of origin, your first language and your occupation.

If either your first language or your country or region of origin is not listed, enter '000'. Look for the closest description of your occupation and proposed area of study. If your work or position is not covered at all, then enter '00'.

Your rights

Information we hold on you is very broad and could include information we do not make available. If you wish to view a copy of your personal details contained in the Application Form contact ielts@ucles.org.uk. A charge of £10 will be made for access to this information. You also have the right to have inaccuracies in your personal details corrected. Please contact us if you find that your information is inaccurate. Documentation must be provided to verify the correct details.

Declaration

- I certify that the information on this form is complete, true and accurate. I understand that if any other person attempts to take the IELTS examination in my place (i.e. in place of the person whose details appear on this form), both I and such person will be liable to prosecution. Details relating to the situation may be provided to the relevant authorities, including visa processing departments.
- I understand that I will be charged the full test fee if I postpone or cancel my test within 5 weeks of the test date, unless I provide appropriate medical evidence to support the postponement or cancellation. Only evidence of serious illness will be considered. I understand that medical evidence must be provided within 5 days of the test date.
- I understand that if I attempt to cheat, copy the work of another candidate, disrupt the test, remove or copy or attempt to remove or copy any test materials from the examination room, engage in any form of malpractice, or do anything that might damage the integrity and security of IELTS, I will not receive a result for the test, my test fee will not be refunded and I may be prohibited from taking IELTS tests in future. I understand that details of any alleged cheating/malpractice may be provided to the relevant authorities, including visa processing authorities. All alleged malpractice will be reported centrally to the Test Partners and to any relevant test centre by the centre where the alleged malpractice occurred.
- I acknowledge receipt of the document entitled IELTS Information for Candidates.
- I acknowledge receipt of the Notice to IELTS Candidates document, contained on page i of this document and undertake to abide by the regulations contained therein.
- I agree an observer may attend my Speaking Test as part of the monitoring process.
- I agree that a photograph may be taken of me on the test day to confirm identity.
- I acknowledge that the IELTS examination is administered by British Council, IDP:IELTS Australia, and Cambridge ESOL collectively referred to as the Test Partners, and I understand and agree that the details on this form are collected for the purposes of the IELTS test and that these details may be disclosed to, processed and stored by the Test Partners for the purpose of such administration and that these details and my examination results may be disclosed by the Test Partners to those academic institutions or other entities to whom I submit my enrolment application, for the purpose of allowing such institutions or entities to verify the results of the test or to carry out an investigation in relation to suspected fraud. If the Test Partners discover that a false or altered Test Report Form has been provided to any of these institutions or entities the Test Partners may inform the same and provide them with my personal details and any relevant details relating to the work I produce as part of my test taking.
- I understand that my results may not be issued within 13 days of the test day if any of the Test Partners deem it necessary to review any matter associated with my test. I understand that in exceptional circumstances I may be required to re-take one or more IELTS modules.
- I understand that my personal data may be processed in an anonymous form for statistical and research purposes for the development of Cambridge ESOL examinations. Cambridge ESOL and the centre administering the test confirm that they will not disclose personal information about candidates to others except as stated in this Declaration or to the extent permitted by law.
- I understand that the work I produce as part of the IELTS test remains the property of the Test Partners and under no circumstances will be released to candidates or institutions/organisations, except in the investigation of alleged malpractice whereby the work I produce as part of the IELTS test may be provided to relevant authorities.
- I understand that if the details on this form are not completed my application may not be processed.

Disclaimer: The International English Language Testing System (IELTS) is designed to be but one of many factors used by academic institutions, government agencies, professional bodies and employers in determining whether a test taker has sufficient English skills to successfully be admitted as a student or be considered for employment. IELTS is specifically designed not to be the sole method of determining admission or employment for the test taker. IELTS is made available worldwide to all persons, regardless of age, gender, race, nationality or religion but it is not recommended to persons under 16 years of age.
